

The Bavarian Chalets

KACHINA VILLAGE, TAOS SKI VALLEY, NEW MEXICO

1 & 2 Bedroom Chalets — Taking Reservations

Modern practical luxury combines with a sublime wilderness experience nestled at the base of Kachina Peak in Taos Ski Valley. With interiors designed by award-winning Alexandra Champalimaud, the Gold Key 2009 Designer of the Year for hospitality design, the newly-built 3 bedroom chalets have already garnered the distinction of Interior Design Magazine's Best of 2009 Merit Award for Boutique Hotels.

Just steps from lift 4, in the new Kachina Village at Mid Mountain, these chalets are perfectly situated for skiing and snowboarding. The rest of the year, they are an ideal base camp for mountain biking, hiking, fishing, horseback riding, and white-water rafting or just watching the stars. Year-round, enjoy breakfast, lunch and dinner at the acclaimed Bavarian Restaurant.

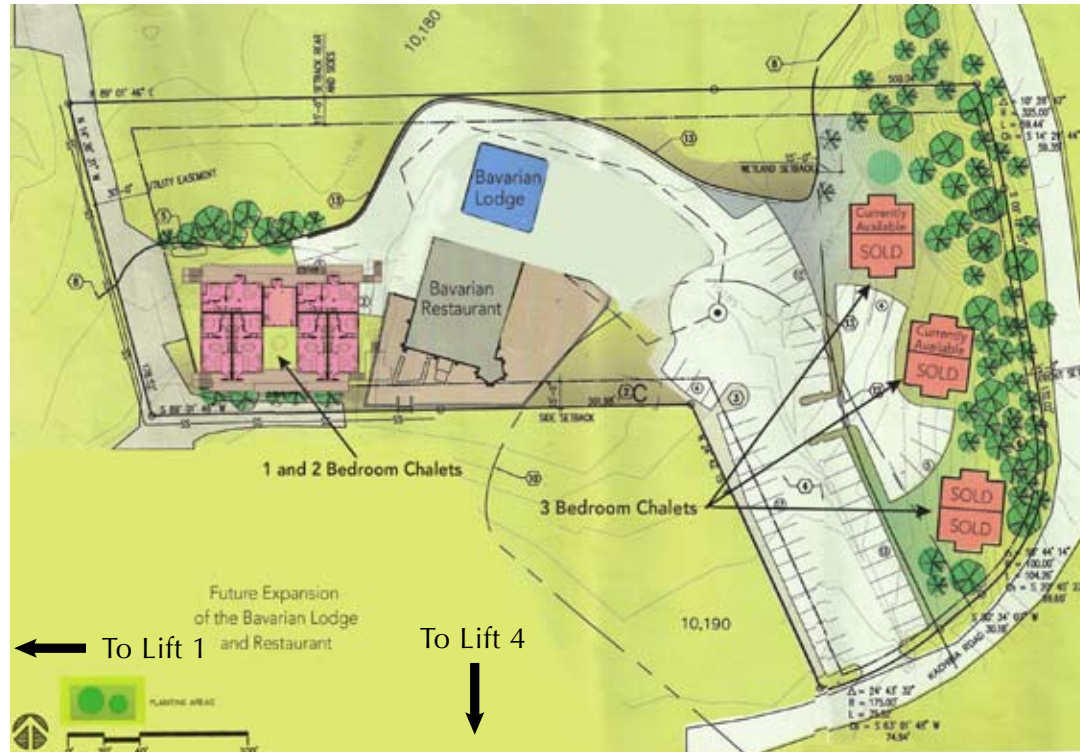

Phase II of the Bavarian Inn and Chalets development consists of fifteen 1 and 2 bedroom chalets. Both traditional and "loft-style" floorplans are available. On-site amenities include ski storage, a spa-style locker room, a sauna and a hot tub.

Architecturally, the new chalet building is designed to complement the existing Bavarian buildings while displaying a character of its own. Interiors combine rustic with modern as well as practical. Features include sliding "barn" doors, built-in bench seating, and custom ski racks and boot trays.

All chalets are furnished and accessorized down to the organic cotton sheets and vintage ski artwork. Property management and full hospitality services, including housekeeping, concierge, and shuttle service are available through the Bavarian Lodge.

Reservations are being taken for six 1 bedroom and two 2 bedroom units. Units 203 and 204, each 1 bedroom units, may be combined to make one 2 bedroom unit.
